Know God & make Him known!!

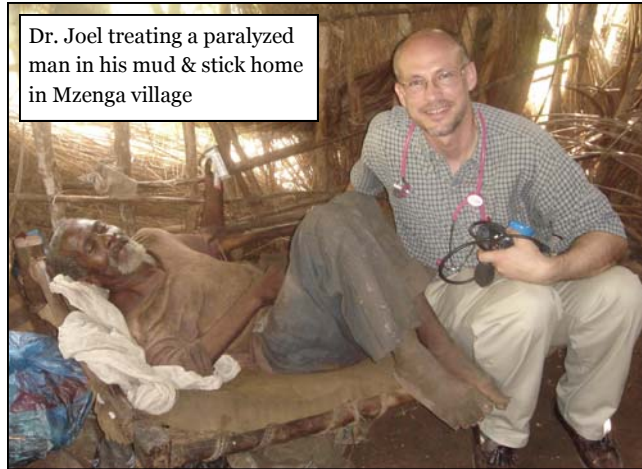

Reach out & touch someone for Jesus!!

Dear friends:

We praise God for his blessings on our mission clinic & village medical outreach ministries! Things are going great! Six more people accepted Jesus as their Savior in Magodani village when we did our clinic there in March, & six others were saved in Nyamisati village in April. God is GOOD!

The evangelistic outreach to the Mbutu village Easter week was excellent! I was the guest preacher, & our church choir were the guest "worship-leaders". Several people made commitments to Jesus! God is SO GOOD!

We have a team of YWAM-IPHC students with us, learning how to give basic medical treatment to people in very needy areas with no nearby doctors. We hope they will use this training to help people with their physical needs, as they go to various remote villages to share about Jesus there.

Pastor Nickson Kalinga's church-plant in Twangoma village is coming along fabulously! Already, there are about 25-30 students & 10 others coming on Sunday mornings.

The twins, Scott & Jaycee, are now walking. They can say "Baba" & "Mama". They've finally got a couple teeth. They will be one year old on May 20th. It's amazing to see how fast they are growing! God is GOOD!

Thanks for your faithful prayers & e-mails & support! We love you! Sincerely,

Drs. Joel & Deborah Carpenter

Twangoma Sunday AM service

What's God been teaching me lately?

Be God's servant, humble, teachable, willing, faithful, generous, others-focused — not self-centered... Unselfishness.

Psalm 119: Is God's word central to my life? I need to read/study/meditate-on/& memorize God's word regularly. I want to be pure. I want & need God's light/guidance to my path — Godly discernment for my daily decisions. Jesus is God's Word, incarnate. He spoke God's words to us. Do I believe it? Do I live it? Do I obey God's word & build on it as my life's foundation (building on the "rock", not on sand)? May God's will (not mine) be done. May all I do, be for His glory!
